Data Protection Act:

It is necessary for Highfield RFC ("the Club") to collect and record certain personal data relating to each Member, including the member's name, address, telephone numbers, date of birth and school. The data about each member shall be provided to the IRFU, the relevant Branch and other third parties to facilitate any services provided relating to the Irish Rugby Football Union's Player Registration Programme Website (The "Website") and published on the Website.

It is the IRFU that controls any data provided. The system will be used for management and administration purposes only. Any party receiving the information shall not use it for commercial purposes or release it to any party without prior approval.

The Club wishes to ensure that each of its members (for the purposes of applicable data protection legislation) explicitly and unambiguously consents to the processing of personal data by the Club in conjunction with its ordinary business. Therefore, the member or, if the member is under 18 years of age, the member's parent or guardian should confirm the following:

I consent to the use of the player's personal details as set out above and for such purposes as the IRFU considers reasonable and appropriate (including those activities detailed above).

Insurance Cover: Highfield RFC, its servants, agents or employees are not under any liability whatsoever for the loss of property, accidents or injuries howsoever caused during the course of training, preparation or matches played at Highfield RFC or other grounds. It is the individual's parents/Guardians' responsibility to ensure that their child has adequate insurance cover, general and medical.
